2010 Living Portraits of African-American Women Selected

The "Living Portraits of African-American Women" program honors women and youth who have made outstanding contributions in various disciplines. This year's honorees and their specific areas of achievement include:

Vanessa Anderson, Mentoring and Motivating
Sharlette C. Evans, Community Service
Jocelyn Miller, Volunteerism
Virginia Payne, Education
Vivian Stovall, Politics
Ann E. White, Government
Brionne Wright, Youth Leadership

This annual program coordinated by the National Council of Negro Women – Denver Section in partnership with the Denver Public Library and Blair Caldwell African American Research Library is held in celebration of International Women's Month.

The Living Portraits of African-American Women awards will be presented on Saturday, March 27, 2010 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the Denver Public Library located at 10 W. 14th Avenue.

Tamara Banks, noted television journalist, will again moderate the honoree interviews.

There is no charge to attend this event; however, an RSVP to 303.296.4359 from persons attending is appreciated.
